GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ Appoints Counsel in its Competition Practice

The law firm GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ, which specializes in corporate and antitrust law, appointed Dr Max Schulz (34) as Counsel with effect from 1 November 2022. Dr Markus Wirtz, Partner of the firm: "We are very pleased to be able to appoint Max Schulz, a first-class lawyer, to the position of Counsel. Through his outstanding work on numerous important antitrust cases, he has made a significant contribution to the great success of our practice group." GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ's antitrust practice group has been growing steadily for years and has already received several national and international awards. With the promotion of Max Schulz as Counsel, GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ continues on its path of organic growth.

Max Schulz started his professional career as an associate at GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ in July 2018. Prior to that, he had already worked for GLADE MICHEL WIRTZ as a trainee lawyer during his legal traineeship.

About Dr Max Schulz

Max Schulz studied law at the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn and the University of Oxford with a focus on antitrust law. In 2017, he received a doctorate degree in law from the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn with a thesis on antitrust law. During his doctoral studies, he worked as a research assistant at the chair for civil, commercial and business law of Prof Dr Daniel Zimmer, LL.M. in Bonn.

Max Schulz advises German and international clients on issues relating to German and European competition law. His practice focuses on advising clients on cooperation agreements and distribution related questions, digital marketplaces, antitrust litigation with a view to the abuse of market power as well as national and international merger control proceedings including matters of foreign direct investment control.
